EDITORIAL NOTES.

The recent publication in the San Jose Herald of the case of spontaneous combustion of a young woman's body, having caused much incredulity, Prof. Gusehniser writes to that paper, declaring as a scientific man that the story is true. He says:

"I have no doubt that spontaneous combustion, so called, was the cause of the woman's death. Of course literal spontaneous combustion of the human body is impossible, but the system may become so thoroughly impregnated with alcohol that the application of a spark of fire may ignite the fat and result in the reduction of the entire frame to charcoal. There are numbers of well authenticated cases on record, the most remarkable of which is that of the Countess Cornelia de Bandi Cosenati, of Verona, in 1831. This case furnished Dickens with a precedent for the death of Krook in 'Bleak House.' I was personally acquainted with the party consumed at Lorenzo, and judging from what I know of the habits and peculiarities of Carrie C. Noyle, I do not hesitate to say that combustion ensued through contact with the flame of a match."

A subscriber writes that the Crystal Peak Lumber Company run the sawdust down the flume from Deg Valley mill and dump it into the river. The presence of saw dust has often destroyed the fish in streams and is at all times dangerous. The principal reason is that it covers up the spawning beds, which, on the Truckee river, were never any too plentiful. A very few dollars of expense would run the sawdust from the mill into dumps near at hand instead of allowing it to go into the main flume. The trouble with the Crystal Peak Company is that they are very short of water, and find it hard enough to get their material out without any going to waste, as it would if the sawdust was carried off by itself.

P. R. Halpin was walking along the road near the court house one day last week when a savage dog was following a hay wagon into town, seized his leg and inflicted a severe wound. The tooth of the beast penetrated the flesh an inch, and the bite is now very much inflamed and swollen. A man who keeps a dog like that that ought to leave him chained up at home, or else chain him to his wagon. Life is not safe with them at large. The streets are full of little boys and girls, and to have one of them bitten by a dog is to cast a dreadful fear over its whole life.

The Bodie News has revived the discussion as to the expediency of removing the State University from Elko to Reno. There can be no doubt that Reno is the best place in the State for such an institution. It lies close to the centres of population in Nevada and at the junction of main lines of travel. The State University at this point would draw many students from the neighboring counties of California. The only man that could ever give a reason for locating the institution at Elko was Gov. Bradley, and he is dead.

An exchange says that a farmer attempted to cut into a premium pumpkin at a fair at Council Grove, Kansas, to get a few of the seeds, but found it made of wood. It had taken many prizes at fairs for its weight, 280 pounds, and its circumference, 7 feet.

Particulars of the Carlin Homicide.

From the Winnemucca River State. Simon Barclay, who has been in the forwarding and fast freight business in the eastern part of the State since the completion of the railroad, was shot and killed at Carlin last Friday, by William Garrard, a son of William Garrard, who was Governor Bradley's Private Secretary for several years, and formerly a resident of Galena near Battle Mountain. The particulars of the homicide, as near as we can learn, are as follows. Garrard met Barclay in front of Jones' store in Carlin, and making some remark, which our informant did not hear, drew a pistol and fired at him. The ball entered his breast just below the ribs, and passing through him lodged in the spine. Barclay lived about three-quarters of an hour after being shot. Garrard delivered himself up to the authorities and telegraphed to Elko for a lawyer. It is said to be another Sprague-Connolly affair, with this difference, that Garrard fired and Sprague only threatened to do so. It is said that Garrard claims that he was justified in shooting Barclay, and alleges that he had been criminally intimate with his (Garrard's) wife.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

A school teacher at Seattle, W. T., was recently arrested, tried and fined $10, for punishing a boy.
 One McWilliams, a Comstock miner, in trying to board a train at Sacramento Saturday was run over and killed.
 The receipts of the San Jose fair were $8,500; its expenses were $8,000. Severe criticisms have been made on its management.

The average loss of bees by the apiarists of Southern California this season is estimated, by the Los Angeles Journal, at 75 per cent.

Charles Timmons of Olympia injured himself by overlifting, and died suddenly shortly afterward. He was an old Oregon pioneer.

Pine tree cones, which inclose the seed, are being exported in large quantities from Victoria to Europe, where new forests are being planted.
 The only child of Andrew Holm and wife of Santa Cruz county, one year old, ate a small piece of fly poison last Sunday, and died that night.
 Trolling for salmon is being extensively carried on in Seattle, W. T. The Indians catch as high as $3 a day, and sell them for 50 cts.

A child eighteen months old was recently stung to death by bees, at Santa Ana, Los Angeles county. He received seventeen stings on his forehead.

The recent rumor that a bed of pure gold had been found at Coos Bay has simmered down to copper, and by the time it is investigated will probably be black sand.

Kellogg, of Bodie, accepted the challenge of Campbell, of Virginia, to walk 175 miles inside of 52 hours, for $250 a side. The match was to commence in Bodie at 6 P. M. yesterday.
 The total receipts of the recent Humboldt county fair were $1,162. This was not enough to pay the expenses and premiums, so the latter were scaled down to 70 cents on the dollar.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

A balky horse in Eureka was started by putting salt in his ear.
 The Tribune says the Carson track is "hard as a rock."
 Henry Watt, shot by watchman of Hale & Norcross, will recover.
 The deepest mine in America is the Belcher, now 2,920 feet in vertical depth.
 The Columbus stage for Carson was robbed last Friday. No particulars stated.

Boy named Paddock, sliding down banisters at Opera house in Virginia, fell 30 feet to floor, breaking wrist. Will recover.
 The valuation of the V. & T. railroad for assessment in Storey county, has been fixed at $25,000 per mile for the main line and $6,000 for the side tracks.

H. Farrington, of Carson, on his way home Friday night was stopped by a man who grabbed his watch and ran off with it. Farrington overtook the thief, recovered the watch and beat him with a big stick.

J. M. Horne was driving near Grantsville a team containing his wife and three children. A sudden lurch threw out his little daughter. Her neck was broken by the fall, and her back by one of the wheels.
 One hundred car loads of material for the Nevada Central railway have arrived at Battle Mountain. About ten miles of the road is reported ready for the cars. A locomotive and twenty cars are daily looked for from the east.

When Hymer was brought into court for sentence Saturday at Winnemucca, his counsel moved for a new trial on the ground that two of the jurors had expressed decided opinions in the case previous to the trial. An arrest of judgment was granted until next Wednesday.

A Man Shot in Suro.

Last Friday night in Suro William Walker was shot by Louis Vincent. The men have been on bad terms for some time. Vincent was drinking at the bar of the Suro saloon, when Walker went behind him and struck him on the head with a rock. Vincent wheeled and drew his six-shooter, but was prevented from shooting by parties in the room. Walker then left, saying he was going to arm himself. In about half an hour Walker, with a pistol in his hand, advanced up on Vincent, who was standing in the rear of the saloon. Vincent then drew his revolver and fired upon Walker. The bullet entered Walker's lower lip, struck the jaw and entered the muscles of the neck, where it lodged. Walker was alive at last accounts. Vincent was discharged from custody. The shooting was shown to have been done in self defense.

Messrs. James S. Mr. Ambrose Huser has been with me 21 years. He is a first-class baker, and I endorse the above.
